

Marcelo Riberto

Professor Marcelo Riberto is a professor of the Department of Biomechanics, Medicine and Rehabilitation of the Locomotor Aparatus at the Ribeirão Preto Medical School at the University of São Paulo, Brazil.

He is specialized in musculoskeletal pain treatment and stroke rehabilitation. His current research includes the management of pain syndromes in stroke survivors, spasticity management and shock wave therapy.

Professor Riberto is currently the President of the Brazilian Association of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation and the editor of Acta Fisiatrica since 2004.